

Easter Bunny's big hop to Sydney Tower- just in time for lunch!

Breaking News- The Easter Bunny will be attempting a record-breaking jump this Easter in Sydney when he tries for a single hop up Sydney Tower – the second highest structure in the southern hemisphere!

His mission- to deliver yummy chocolate eggs to all the kids enjoying a delicious buffet meal at Sydney Tower Restaurant.

Take the whole family for a fabulous treat this Easter break- and have a ball yourself! Sydney Tower Restaurant offers relaxed dining, with a delicious and contemporary international self-serve buffet... and best of all, every table has an uninterrupted, 360 degree outlook. You'll undertake a memorable panoramic journey with a full floor revolution every 70 minutes, enjoying exceptional views of the stunning Sydney skyline.

While you enjoy your meal and the scenery, you can thrill the kids with a few amazing facts about Sydney Tower-

- It's 305 metres tall, so four times as high as the Opera House (67metres) and more than double the height of the Harbour Bridge (134 metres)
- It's as tall as 60 giraffes – the world's tallest animal.
- The entire tower weighs in at an awesome 4067 tonnes. That's as heavy as 37 blue whales (the world's biggest animal), ten jumbo jets, or four Manly ferries.

And it's the first place in Sydney to greet the dawn each day and the last place to see the sunset....

Buffet lunch opens at 11.30 am Monday to Friday, at 12pm on weekends and public holidays, and buffet dinner opens from 5pm. The one and a half hour dining time allows you to enjoy a full rotation.

Children from 3 to 12 years dine at just $24.50 each. For adults, lunch is from $49.50, and dinner from $64.50. Visit www.sydneytowerrestaurant.com.au for further details and to make a booking.

For the ultimate holiday treat this Easter, take the family for a buffet meal at Sydney Tower Restaurant- enjoy the incredible views, the fantastic food, and ofcourse, Easter Bunny's finest!
